

Section 2 Worksheet: Community Assessment

Creative Aging Foundations features a series of worksheets designed to help programmers, departments, and organizations get ready to launch or think about sustaining creative aging programming. Please answer the following reflective questions independently or in partnership discussion with colleagues.

1.	What facilities or spaces do you have access to that might be a good fit for an art program?
2.	What partners might you approach to inquire if their space is available for an art program?
3.	How would you identify what the older adults in your community are interested in .	learning?
